

FUNDAMENTALS OF DIVINE SCIENCE

LESSON IX

MID TERM EXAM

This is your first examination. Write as concisely as possible, but say everything you wish to say. You may consult the textbook and the printed lessons in answering these questions. The purpose of this test is not that your teacher finds out how much you know, but that you are able to organize your knowledge by this means. Your teacher is interested in how much you know, however; so mail the answers as soon as you have finished.

1. What is Divine Science?
2. What does Divine Science stand for?
3. What is the basis of Divine Science?
4. What place has Divine Science in the unfoldment of humanity?
5. What are the inherencies of God?
6. What are the inherencies of man?
7. What do we mean by Omnipresence?
8. What does Divine Science teach about Substance?
9. Does Divine Science deny the visible universe?
10. Does there exist a power or a presence opposite to God?
11. What is the absolute trinity?
12. What is the individual trinity?
13. What is the trinity of the Divine Mind?
14. What is your real Self?
15. Can one change the real Self by thinking?
16. What can right-thinking change for the individual?
17. What is the Law of Expression?
18. Is it literally true that we are all one in God?
19. What is the Christ?
20. What is your understanding of the Jesus Christ Principle?