

"Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus.

—Philippians 2:5

"We are to let the mind be in us which was in Christ Jesus. Note carefully the way in which the expression is used. The mind which was in Christ Jesus. Not our present mind, marvelous as that is with its different ramifications—but the mind which Jesus used."

—Ernest Holmes

"We must remember that the Word that can set in motion the law of life, and make it triumph over the law of death, cannot be spoken by the limited personality which only knows itself as John Smith or Mary Jones. We must attain a larger personality than that before we can speak the Word. And this larger personality is not just John Smith or Mary Jones magnified. That is the mistake we are all so apt to fall into. Mere magnification will not do it—the "word" that we speak. . . . [must be] no longer ours, but His."

—Thomas Troward

"Unless we are trying to regenerate, we are missing the Christ message. What does regeneration mean? It means the building of a new soul, not correcting the old one."

—Emmet Fox

"God expects but one thing of you: that you get out of His way and let God be God in you."

—Meister Eckhart
